The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 19, to Thursday June 21, 1792.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS divers wicked and seditious Writings have been printed, published, and industriously dispersed, tending to excite Tumult and Disorder, by endeavouring to raise groundless Jealousies and Discontents in the Minds of Our faithful and loving Subjects, respecting the Laws and happy Constitution of Government, Civil and Religious, established in this Kingdom; and endeavouring to vilify and bring into Contempt the wise and wholesome Provisions made at the Time of the Glorious Revolution, and since strengthened and confirmed by subsequent Laws for the Preservation and Security of the Rights and Liberties of Our faithful and loving Subjects: And whereas divers Writings have also been printed, published and industriously dispersed, recommending the said wicked and seditious Publications to the Attention of all Our faithful and loving Subjects: And whereas we have also Reason to believe that Correspondences have been entered into with sundry Persons in Foreign Parts, with a View to forward the criminal and wicked Purposes above mentioned. And whereas the Wealth, Happiness and Prosperity of this Kingdom do, under Divine Providence, chiefly depend upon a due Submission to the Laws, a just Confidence in the Integrity and Wisdom of Parliament, and a Continuance of that zealous Attachment to the Government and Constitution of the Kingdom, which has ever prevailed in the Minds of the People thereof: And whereas there is nothing which We so earnestly desire as to secure the Publick Peace and Prosperity, and to preserve to all Our loving Subjects the full Enjoyment of their Rights and Liberties, both Religious and Civil: We, therefore, being resolved, as far as in Us lies, to repress the wicked and seditious Practices aforesaid, and to deter all Persons from following so pernicious an Example, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, solemnly warning all Our loving Subjects, as they tender their own Happiness, and that of their Posterity, to guard against all such Attempts, which aim at the Subversion of all regular Government within this Kingdom, and which are inconsistent with the Peace and Order of Society; and earnestly exhorting them at all Times, and to the utmost of their Power, to avoid and discourage all Proceedings, tending to produce Riots and Tumults; and We do strictly charge and command all Our Magistrates in and throughout Our Kingdom of Great Britain, that they do make diligent Enquiry, in order to discover the Authors and Printers of such wicked and seditious Writings as aforesaid, and all others who shall disperse the same: And We do further charge and

command all Our Sheriffs, Juſtices of the Peace, chief Magiſtrates in Our Cities, Boroughs and Corporations, and all other Our Officers and Magiſtrates throughout Our Kingdom of Great Britain, that they do, in their ſeveral and reſpective Stations, take the moſt immediate and effectual Care to ſuppreſs and prevent all Riots, Tumults and other Diſorders, which may be attempted to be raiſed or made by any Perſon or Perſons, which, on whatever Pretext they may be grounded, are not only contrary to Law, but dangerous to the moſt important Intereſts of this Kingdom: And We do further require and command all and every Our Magiſtrates aforeſaid, that they do, from Time to Time, tranſmit to One of Our Principal Secretaries of State, due and full Information of ſuch Perſons as ſhall be found offending as aforeſaid, or in any Degree aiding or abetting therein; it being Our Determination, for the Preſervation of the Peace and Happineſs of Our faithful and loving Subjects, to carry the Laws vigorouſly into Execution againſt ſuch Offenders as aforeſaid.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Houſe, the Twenty-firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-two, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

Whitehall, June 21.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries, has been preſented to the King by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries, deeply impreſſed with the Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, and to expreſs the Senſe which we, in common with the other Inhabitants of this County, entertain of your Majeſty's paternal Care for the Welfare of your People, in iſſuing your Royal Proclamation for the Diſcouragement of thoſe wicked and ſeditious Publications which have of late been induſtriouſly ſpread abroad, and which, by attempting to calumniate and vilify the Conſtitution, and to raiſe groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontent among your Subjects, evidently tend to excite Tumult and Diſorder.

Senſible as we are of the Bleſſings we poſſeſs from our juſtly admired Conſtitution, we look with Indignation at all ſuch Attempts as aim at it's Subverſion, and are inconſiſtent with the Peace and good Order of Society.

Animated by theſe Sentiments, we conſider it as our Duty, upon this Occaſion, to expreſs our Loyalty to your Majeſty, your Family and Government, and our zealous Attachment to the Conſtitution; and to aſſure you, that our beſt Endeavours ſhall be exerted to preſerve Public Peace and Tranquillity, and to defeat all wicked Attempts to diſturb your Majeſty's Government.

Dumfries, June 13, 1792.

[Tranſmitted by Sir William Maxwell, Bart. Præſes.]

The following Addreſs of the Freholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries, has been preſented to His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department: Which Addreſs His Royal Highneſs was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To His Royal Highneſs the PRINCE of WALES.

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries.

WE, the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries, now aſſembled, take the firſt Opportunity of preſenting our ſincere Thanks and Acknowledgements to your Royal Highneſs for your diſtinguiſhed and truly patriotic Appearance in Parliament, in Support of the Conſtitution, upon a late important Occaſion, when the Diſcouragement of ſeditious Publications, tending to diſturb or depreciate our happy Conſtitution, was the Subject of Deliberation, and when your Royal Highneſs, in a Manner truly becoming your exalted Station, expreſſed your Senſe of ſuch Publications in Terms that muſt endear you to all true Lovers of their Country.

That your Royal Highneſs may long live, an Example of public and private Virtue to all His Majeſty's Subjects, is our ſincere and ardent Wiſh and Prayer.

Dumfries, June 13, 1792.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum has been preſented to the King by the Mayor of that City, attended by the Earl of Radnor, Recorder, and the Hon. W. H. Bouverie and William Huſſey, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of your City of New Sarum, humbly beg Leave to acknowledge your Majeſty's parental Goodneſs and Vigilance for the Public Peace, in the Meaſure you have lately taken for the Suppreſſion of ſuch wicked and inflammatory Writings as are calculated to raiſe and encourage Diſcontent.

We have the Happineſs of ſeeing the Kingdom in the preſent Moment at an unexampled Height of Proſperity; and as we have, within a few Years, had had Occaſion to lament a very different State of Things, (as all human Affairs are ſubject to the Tide of Fortune) we muſt, under Providence, aſcribe ſo ſudden and ſo comfortable a Change to the natural Energy of the Britiſh Conſtitution.

We derive no ſmall Degree of Satisfaction from believing that the Enemies of our Public Eſtabliſhments are very few, and cannot help thinking this is a neceſſary Conſequence of the Extent through which the Public Bleſſings are diffuſed and felt.

We receive, with perfect Confidence and grateful Reſpect, your Majeſty's Aſſurance of uſing your utmoſt Endeavours to maintain among your People a juſt Senſe of the Advantages of our Conſtitution, the Source of legal and well-regulated Freedom; and we have no Doubt that theſe Endeavours will continue to be ſeconded by your Two Houſes of Parliament, as they are by the Zeal and Gratitude of a free and loyal People.

Dated under our Common Seal, this 8th Day of June, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

Whitehall, June 21.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Glamorgan, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon with our moſt ardent Declarations of Loyalty and Attachment, to return our unfeigned Thanks for your Majeſty's moſt gracious Attention to the Preſervation and Security of the Rights and Liberties of your Subjects, to expreſs our deep Conviction of the many invaluable Bleſſings which we have long enjoyed under the Excellence of our Conſtitution, more immediately ſecured to us by the peculiar Mildneſs of your Majeſty's parental Government.

We ſhall conſtantly view with Abhorrence, and oppoſe by all the Means within our Power, every Meaſure which may carry with it the ſlighteſt Tendency to ſhake the Attachment of Subjects, who, conſidering your Majeſty as the beloved Sovereign of a free People, are reſolved, by their Example, to cheriſh and encourage the general Spirit and Determination ſo manifeſt throughout the Country, not only to act with the moſt unſhaken Zeal, but heartily to concur in every conſtitutional Meaſure, of which the Circumſtances of the Times may demand the Execution.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Angleſey.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Angleſey, unanimouſly and humbly beſeech your Majeſty to accept our Thanks for the Royal Proclamation you have been pleaſed to iſſue for ſuppreſſing ſeditious Publications and criminal Correſpondences. The Effects of which Proclamation will, we hope, continue to us the Bleſſings of internal Peace and a ſettled Government, and will effectually check the Endeavours and Deſigns of concealed Traitors, of factious Clubs, and of the Preachers of Sedition, in theſe Times of unexampled Proſperity, in theſe Times of happy Peace, when our National Debt is rapidly decreaſing, and our Taxes are reducing. We are full of Hope your Majeſty's Proclamation will protect our rational Liberty, and will cheriſh the prudent and peaceful Diſpoſitions of your honeſt Subjects, and will repel the Growth of Treaſon, and puniſh the inſolent Spirits of unprincipled and levelling Adventurers.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Edinburgh.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Edinburgh, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the moſt ſincere Gratitude to your Majeſty for your late gracious Proclamation againſt ſeditious and inflammatory Publications, and for preventing any Attempt to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity of theſe Kingdoms.

In this Meaſure we trace at once the conſtitutional Principles of the Houſe of Brunſwick, and the paternal Care of the Father of his People.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unalterable Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government; that we will ſupport your Majeſty in your Endeavours to preſerve to this Nation it's Rights and Conſtitution as eſtabliſhed and confirmed at the Revolution; and that in our reſpective Stations we will exert ourſelves with Zeal and Firmneſs to counteract the Attempts of thoſe who, by ſome late ſeditious Publications, have endeavoured to render diſſatisfied with their Conſtitution a People, who under that Conſtitution, as guarded by your Majeſty and your Royal Anceſtors, have domeſtic Happineſs, and have riſen to a Degree of Glory and Proſperitys unexampled among the cotemporary Nations of Europe.

We rejoice, however, in the Belief, that theſe ſeditious Attempts have been confined but to a few; and that the great Body of our Fellow-Subjects, of all Ranks and Deſcriptions, feel univerſally the Bleſſings of that Government under which they have the Happineſs to live, and an ardent Deſire to tranſmit the ſame unimpaired to their Poſterity.

Under the ſtrong Impreſſion of theſe Sentiments it is with peculiar Pleaſure we obſerve, from that illuſtrious Perſon who, as the firſt Subject in theſe Kingdoms, claims the Affection of every Friend to his Country, that we may look for the ſame Regard and Veneration for it's Conſtitution from every Member of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment, of the Meeting at Edinburgh, the 13th of June, 1792.

Roſebery.

[Tranſmitted by the Earl of Roſebery.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Councilmen of the Borough of Boſton, in the County of Lincoln, in Common Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Councilmen of the ancient Borough of Boſton, in the County of Lincoln, moſt humbly thank your Majeſty for the late additional Inſtance of your Majeſty's vigilant Attention to the Peace and Welfare of your People.

Our Minds are deeply impreſſed by the ſolemn Warning held forth to us in your Majeſty's Proclamation againſt divers wicked and ſeditious Writings, by which evil-minded Perſons have endeavoured to to render us diſcontented with thoſe juſt Laws and that happy Conſtitution, Civil and Religious, under which we live.

We view with Abhorrence all Attempts of this Nature. We view them with eſpecial Surprize at this Time, in which, under a wiſe Adminiſtration of Publick Affairs, we are enjoying a Proſperity great and encreaſing beyond Example; and we will reſiſt ſuch Attempts with all the lawful Means veſted in us by the Conſtitution of this Kingdom.

We have a ſtrong and well-grounded Confidence in the Integrity and Wiſdom of Parliament; we are cordially attached to the Government and Conſtitution of the Kingdom; and we love and venerate our Sovereign and his Royal Conſort, as well for their publick Virtues, as for the excellent Pattern which they have uniformly ſet before us in their moral and religious Characters.

We pray that your Majeſty may long continue to reign the faithful King and tender Father of a truly free, happy and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, the 15th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

[Tranſmitted by Thomas Fydell, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Corporation, Gentlemen, Clergy and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Taunton.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Corporation, Gentlemen, Clergy and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Taunton, being truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Reign, and the well-regulated Conſtitution of theſe Realms, preſume to offer our Addreſs on the late Proclamation. We are thoroughly impreſſed with a proper Senſe of your Majeſty's Zeal for promoting the Proſperity, and preſerving the Harmony of this happy and flouriſhing Kingdom, and ſhall therefore ever be ready to obſerve your Majeſty's moſt gracious Command, that a due Order in the Government be preſerved, by checking every Tendency to Sedition, whether it be in unconſtitutional Aſſemblies, criminal Correſpondencies, or inflammatory Publications. We are too well aware of the Dangers that might reſult ſhould any ſpeculative Notions or theoretical Schemes be adopted which the Spirit of Faction may deviſe, and are therefore reſolved to ſupport the preſent Conſtitution, on it's own Foundation, as eſtabliſhed at the Glorious Revolution. We are convinced, that the true Enjoyment of Liberty lives in the Security of our Perſons and our Property, under the Protection of a well-regulated Legiſlation. This, at preſent, we too ſubſtantially experience, to riſk the Hazard of loſing, by adopting Theory inſtead of Practice, and exchanging poſitive Advantages for ſpeculative Amendments.

Under theſe Impreſſions we are determined to exert ourſelves in the Preſervation of the Public Weal, and to keep a vigilant Eye over all Perſons who may be ſuſpected of any Deſigns, either to ſubvert the preſent Order of the State, or diſturb the Tranquillity of your Majeſty's Reign.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of New Windſor, in the County of Berks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of New Windſor, moſt humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our warm and grateful Thanks for the Wiſdom and paternal Goodneſs evinced by your Royal Proclamation for ſuppreſſing thoſe ſeditious Writings ſo induſtriouſly publiſhed and circulated, tending to produce Riots and Tumults in your Majeſty's Kingdom.

We humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, eſtimating the Value of thoſe Bleſſings which we enjoy, we are firmly united in the Support of your Majeſty's Endeavours to continue them to us and our Poſterity.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the City of Briſtol.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the City of Briſtol, beg Leave to teſtify to your Majeſty our warm and grateful Senſe of the recent Proof of your paternal Solicitude for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, evinced by your Majeſty's late moſt gracious Proclamation.

We cannot but be truly ſenſible of the conſtant Attention of your Majeſty to protect the Conſtitution ſo happily eſtabliſhed within this Realm, to which we are moſt ſincerely attached; and which we deem it the indiſpenſable Obligation of all good Citizens to maintain and defend, by diſcouraging every Attempt, and counteracting every Effort, however ſpeciouſly diſguiſed, which may tend to interrupt that public Order and Tranquillity, which is the greateſt Bleſſing of a civilized Nation.

We are perfectly convinced that real Liberty can only exiſt under the Protection of Law, and the Authority of an efficient and regular Government; and deeply impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we eſteem it our Duty to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Allegiance and ſteady Support.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects the Society of Merchant Venturers of the City of Briſtol.

HAPPY, moſt gracious Sovereign, with your Majeſty's Subjects in general, in the full Enjoyment of the Bleſſings of an excellent Conſtitution, under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, we ſhould deem ourſelves loſt to every Senſe of Gratitude and Affection, could we obſerve, with Indifference, any Circumſtance, which, in the remoteſt Degree, tended to leſſen the Reſpect of our Fellow Subjects to the Laws, or to diſturb the Peace of your Majeſty's Reign.

It is, therefore, with the deepeſt Concern we learn from your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, that ſeditious Correſpondences have been entered into, and Writings induſtriouſly diſſeminated and recommended to the Attention of our Fellow Subjects, calculated to excite in their Minds groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents reſpecting our Laws and happy Conſtitution of Government, and to bring into Contempt the wiſe and wholeſome Proviſions made at the Glorious Revolution, and ſince ſtrengthened by ſubſequent Laws.

We are aſſured that your Majeſty deſires nothing more earneſtly than to maintain Public Order and Tranquillity, and to preſerve to your faithful Subjects the full and permanent Enjoyment of all their Rights and Liberties. And we conſider it as a freſh Mark of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Attention to the Welfare of your Subjects, that your Majeſty has been pleaſed to take ſuch Meaſures as will, we truſt, effectually check every Endeavor to excite Tumult and Diſorder.

Fully convinced as we are that the Wealth and Happineſs of the Nation principally depend on a due Submiſſion to the Laws, a juſt Confidence in the Wiſdom and Integrity of Parliament, and a zealous Attachment to the Government and Conſtitution, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will uſe every Exertion to inculcate theſe Sentiments; and that we ſhall be always ready, to the utmoſt of our Power, to aſſiſt in diſcouraging all Proceedings which may tend to interrupt the Peace and Proſperity of your Majeſty's Dominions.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabi ants of the City of Coventry.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

CONſcious of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, and firmly attached, from Principle, to our moſt excellent Conſtitution, we cannot refrain from expreſſing our moſt grateful Senſe of the late prudent and vigorous Meaſures, which your Majeſty hath been induced to adopt, for the Suppreſſion of thoſe ſcandalous Writings and ſeditious Aſſociations, the too manifeſt Tendency whereof is to ſubvert all juſt and neceſſary Subordination, and introduce in it's Room, under the Pretext of an imaginary and impracticable Equality, univerſal Anarchy and Confuſion.

May the Vigilance of your Majeſty's Adviſers be ſucceſsfully exerted in the Detection and Defeat of every factious Attempt to diſturb the Tranquillity of your Reign; and be aſſured, Sire, that we, on our Parts, will gladly contribute, as far as our Abilities extend, to the Furtherance and Accompliſhment of all ſuch laudable and truly patriotic Deſigns as are calculated to ſecure and promote, together with the perſonal Felicity of our Sovereign, the Glory and Proſperity of the whole Britiſh Empire.

[Tranſmitted by Richard Gilbert, Eſq; Maſter of the Drapers, and Chairman of the Meeting.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town of Plymouth Dock, and Pariſh of Stoke Damarell, in the County of Devon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IMpreſſed with the deepeſt Senſe of the Wiſdom, Benevolence and paternal Care evinced in your late gracious Proclamation, for ſuppreſſing ſeditious Publications, and for the Preſervation of Peace and good Order throughout this Kingdom, we, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Plymouth Dock and Pariſh of Stoke Damarell, moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty to accept our grateful Thanks for the ſame.

Having experienced, during your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, the Bleſſings of a Conſtitution, framed by our Anceſtors on he Principles of Liberty, regulated by Laws, we ſincerely hope, that your Majeſty's gracious Endeavours will cauſe the ſame to be continued to us and tranſmitted to our Poſterity. And with the moſt unfeigned Loyalty to your Majeſty, the moſt ſteady Attachment to your Family, and the warmeſt Zeal for the Support of the Conſtitution of this Country, we think ourſelves bound by the ſtrongeſt Ties of Religion, Allegiance and Gratitude, to make all Returns that can be due from obedient Subjects to a moſt gracious King, and truſt that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Principal Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, in the County of Dorſet, beg Leave, as a Teſtimony of the inviolable Attachment that we feel to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, as alſo of the high Veneration that we have for our excellent Conſtitution, to preſent you with our moſt hearty Thanks for having iſſued your late Proclamation to prevent all ſeditious Writings and Meetings that may tend to alienate the Affections of your Majeſty's Subjects, or to ſubvert the Principles of that Conſtitution, under which we enjoy ſo many great and invaluable Bleſſings.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Scarbrough, in the County of York, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Scarbrough, in the County of York, in Common Council aſſembled, being fully ſenſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under the Laws and Conſtitution of this Kingdom, beg Leave humbly to expreſs expreſs our ſincere Veneration and Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, and alſo to offer our grateful Acknowledgements for your Majeſty's paternal Care and Attention to the Welfare of your People, manifeſted by your late Royal Proclamation for the Suppreſſion of ſeditious Writings and Publications againſt the Conſtitution and Government of your Majeſty's Realms, and for preventing Tumults and other Diſorders, tending to diſturb the public Peace and Tranquillity.

We ſincerely truſt that all Ranks of your Majeſty's Subjects will zealouſly unite in promoting the Ends and Deſigns of your Majeſty's Proclamation; and that the valuable Conſtitution under which we live may continue to us and our Poſterity that Protection of our Lives and Properties for which our Laws have deſervedly been the Envy and Admiration of other Nations.

Given under our Common Seal, the 13th Day of June, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Fowey, beg your Majeſty to receive our hearty Thanks for your paternal Care in iſſuing the late Proclamation to guard us againſt Aſſociations formed and Publications diſperſed throughout the Kingdom, tending to weaken the Government under which we have the Happineſs to live, and to introduce Alterations more likely to deſtroy than ſupport our preſent happy Conſtitution. We wiſh to expreſs to your Majeſty our Abhorrence of ſuch dangerous Attempts, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will exert our utmoſt Endeavours to preſerve Peace and good Order, and a Continuance of that Comfort and Happineſs we now enjoy under your Majeſty's mild Government, and the Laws as eſtabliſhed by Parliament, which ſo well ſecure our Rights and Liberties.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bridgemen, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Henley upon Thames, in the County of Oxford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bridgemen, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Henley upon Thames, in the County of Oxford, moſt humbly approach your Majeſty with our ſincere and unfeigned Thanks for your Majeſty's paternal Care and Attention to the Welfare of your People in Iſſuing your late Royal Proclamation.

Senſible as we are of the many ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, we cannot but behold, with Deteſtation and Abhorrence, the inſidious Attempts of the Enemies of our Glorious Conſtitution to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity of the Nation; but we feel the moſt lively Satisfaction in reflecting, that your Majeſty's well-timed Interference, and the Attachment manifeſt in the People at large to your Majeſty's Family and Perſon, and to the Principles of our Conſtitution as eſtabliſhed at the Revolution, cannot fail of ſecuring to us the full and peaceable Enjoyment of our Rights and Liberties, which juſtly characterize us as a free and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall in the Town of Henley upon Thames, the 18th Day of June, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Cupar.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, having taken into Conſideration your Majeſty's gracious Proclamation againſt ſeditious Publications, beg Leave to return you our ſincere Thanks for this freſh Mark of your paternal Attention to the Happineſs and Welfare of your Subjects.

Senſible of the many ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, and anxious that our preſent happy Conſtitution may be tranſmitted unimpaired to ſucceeding Generations, we aſſure your Majeſty, that we will make every Exertion in our Power to promote and carry into Effect the kind and wiſe Purpoſe of your Royal Proclamation.

Signed in our Names, and by our Appointment, at the Town Houſe of Cupar, this 9th Day of June, 1792.

Wm. M. Moriſon, Provoſt.

[Tranſmitted by the Hon. Captain George Murray, Repreſentative in Parliament for that Burgh.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Montroſe, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Montroſe, having learned, with much Concern, the late Attempts to excite in the Minds of your faithful Subjects, groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents reſpecting the Laws and Conſtitution of Government of this Kingdom, beg Leave to expreſs our ſincere Approbation of thoſe Meaſures which your Majeſty in your Wiſdom has thought proper to recommend in your Royal Proclamation, for the Suppreſſion of all ſeditious Publications, and the Maintenance of Civil Order and Subordination.

Firmly attached to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, and highly ſenſible of the Liberty and Protection we enjoy under our happy Conſtitution, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our humble Endeavours in Support of the Laws, and the Peace and Tranquillity of thoſe within our Juriſdiction.

Signed and ſealed, by our Appointment, this 11th Day of June, 1792.

And. Milne, Baillie.

[Tranſmitted by Alexander Allardyce, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for that Burgh.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Aberbrothock, in the County

County of Forfar, do humbly beg Leave to expreſs our Gratitude to your Majeſty for the Publication of your late Royal Proclamation againſt ſeditious and inflammatory Writings, in order to preſerve the Peace and Tranquillity of theſe happy Realms from the Attempts of wicked and deſigning Men.

We think it a Duty incumbent on us to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt hearty, zealous end ſteady Support in repelling the Attempts to ſubvert the Conſtitution; and that we will, in our Capacity of Magiſtrates, uſe our utmoſt Endeavours for the Safety of the Community, and the good Order of all who are within the Limits of our Juriſdiction.

It is our ſincere Hope and ardent Deſire that your Majeſty may be long preſerved to reign over a loyal, a free and grateful People; and that you may be enabled to hand down our Conſtitution, in Church and State, unimpaired, to lateſt Poſterity.

Signed and ſealed, in Preſence and by Appointment of the Council, at the Town-Hall of Aberbrothock, this 14th Day of June, 1792 Years.

David Grieg, Provoſt.

[Delivered by Alexander Allardyce, Repreſentive in Parliament for that Burgh.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of the Borough of Dundee, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to render our Tribute of Gratitude for your late Royal Proclamation againſt ſeditious Publications.

We diſclaim the wicked and deteſtable Poſitions which they contain, and conſider them as daring Attacks upon the Principles of our glorious Conſtitution.

We hold ourſelves poſſeſſed of real Liberty in a Degree unknown to other Nations.

Our Perſons and Fortunes we feel protected by a Syſtem of Laws which are the Envy of the World; and we ſhrink from ſtaking theſe diſtinguiſhed Bleſſings on an Experiment for Redreſs of imaginary Evils.

Permit us, with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Reſpect, to expreſs our Attachment to your Sacred Perſon and illuſtrious Houſe; our Veneration of that Conſtitution, which has preſerved to us undiminiſhed our Religious, Civil and Political Liberties; and our earneſt Wiſh that they may be handed down to lateſt Poſterity.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Members of the Church of England, Inhabitants of the Town and Pariſh of Kidderminſter, in the County of Worceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly tender to your Throne our warmeſt and ſincereſt Acknowledgments for the gracious and ſeaſonable Support which your Royal Proclamation affords to the Peace and Happineſs of your People, endangered by the moſt ſeditious Publications and treaſonable Correſpondences.

It is plainly the Object of theſe pernicious Movements to deſtroy our Conſtitution in Church and State, and to level with the Ground the Work of that Glorious Revolution, which has reared us a Renown and Proſperity unequalled in the Annals of Mankind. We therefore feel ourſelves prompted by Loyalty to offer in this Age, when the baneful Influence of Republicaniſm is diſſeminated by ſeditious Writings, and when Anarchy is foſtered by ſecret Correſpondences, this Teſtimony of our zealous Attachment to the Conſtitution as eſtabliſhed at the Revolution, and as improved on ſubſequent Occaſions.

Enjoying, as we do, the moſt envied Succeſs in our Manufactures, and the moſt decided Superiority in our Commerce, together with the free Exerciſe of our Civil and Religious Liberty, we cannot withhold our Aſſurance of preſerving, by every Means in our Power, our eſtabliſhed Government both in Church and State from the impending Dangers of ſpeculative Innovations.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Town or Borough of Stamford, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our moſt grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's paternal Attention to the Laws and Conſtitution of this Kingdom, in Church and State.

It will be our zealous Endeavour, as it is our Duty both as Magiſtrates and private Men, to concur with your Majeſty's gracious Deſign, in preſerving and tranſmitting to Poſterity the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Cirenceſter, in the County of Glouceſter, and it's Neighbourhood.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, Inhabitants of the Borough of Cirenceſter in Glouceſterſhire, or reſident in it's Neighbourhood, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with unfeigned Aſſurances of Loyalty and Attachment, which we conſider as more peculiarly neceſſary at this Time, when Attempts have been made by injudicious Aſſociations, and other pernicious Methods, to propagate Doctrines among the People repugnant to the Principles of our excellent Conſtitution. We have ſeen with the ſincereſt Satisfaction and Gratitude the Steps your Majeſty has taken to ſuppreſs all illegal Meetings, and to prevent the Diſperſion of ſeditious Writings, and fully truſt to your Majeſty's Wiſdom for a Continuance of ſuch Meaſures as ſhall maintain us in the Poſſeſſion of thoſe Bleſſings delivered down to us by the Glorious Revolution. That your Majeſty may long live ſecure in the Affection of a loyal People, is the earneſt Wiſh and Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Honiton, in the County of Devon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WHEN the diſtinguiſhed Happineſs this Country hath of late enjoyed, it's univerſal Proſperity, unbounded Succeſs, and general Tranquillity, are contraſted with the Anarchy and Confuſion into which the Nations around us are thrown, their ſevere Calamities, their accumulating Diſtreſſes, and dreadful Convulſions, every true Engliſhman muſt reflect on his Situation with Sentiments of Veneration and Gratitude.

That happy, proſperous and tranquil State muſt be conſidered by the ſober and unprejudiced Mind, under Divine Providence, as the Effect of our excellent Conſtitution, and of that moderate, regular, and well-conducted Syſtem of Government under which we live, and from which are derived Protection to every Individual, from the higheſt to the loweſt, in their Perſons and Properties, and an indiſcriminate Security of all ſuch Civil and Religious Liberty as can be deemed conſiſtent with the general Welfare or the Safety of Society.

That ſome, from a Want of Knowledge of the Nature of real Liberty, ſhould buſy themſelves in the Purſuit of an imaginary one, the Courſe of human Affairs teaches us to expect. Nor is it very ſingular, that the Kingdom over which the Bleſſings of true Liberty are univerſally diffuſed ſhould have her Enemies, who envy her Happineſs, and would diſturb her Repoſe. But it is not ſo eaſy to account how ſuch ſhould exiſt among thoſe who participate her Favors, and who, ſharing her Comforts, ſhould attempt to ſow the Seeds of Jealouſy and Diſcontent, and to excite Tumults, and, under the Pretence of Freedom, wiſh to undermine the Foundation of our Conſtitution, and to deſtroy it's Superſtructure.

With extreme Concern have we obſerved the licentious and ſeditious Writings daily diſperſed throughout the Country; and perhaps their Purpoſe are not more fully anſwered by their Publication than by the Conduct of thoſe Perſons, who are forming themſelves into different Aſſociations, avowedly on the ſame Principles; aſſuming to themſelves, without any Regard to Conſiſtency, without any Solicitation, and without any Authority, other than what they claim from their own Wills, the Province of determining for the People at large, of dictating to the Legiſlature a Reform of the Conſtitution; profeſſing by it to redreſs Grievances which are uncomplained of, and to grant Privileges which are unſought for.

For your gracious Interference, Sire, to prevent the Evils attendant on ſuch Meaſures, and for the paternal Care and anxious Solicitude of your Majeſty to preſerve the Happineſs, Liberties, and true Intereſts of our Country, we are bound to expreſs to your Royal Perſon our heartfelt Satisfaction and warmeſt Thanks. And we think it alſo our Duty to aſſure our moſt gracious Sovereign, we ſhall ever feel it incumbent on us to uſe every Means in our Power to counteract all Attempts againſt public Order and Tranquillity, and to manifeſt to the World our Attachment to the Government and glorious Conſtitution of this Kingdom, and the juſt Idea we entertain of the unexampled Bleſſings we have experienced during the Reign of a King who glories in being ſtiled "the Father of his People," and for whoſe Health and Happineſs, both public and domeſtic, are daily offered up to the Creator of the Univerſe the Prayers of a free and grateful People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Council of the Town of Kilmarnock.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of Kilmarnock, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty at this Time, humbly beſeeching you to accept our grateful Thanks for your late Royal Proclamation againſt ſeditious and inflammatory Publications, diſperſed apparently with a View to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity of your Majeſty's Dominions.

Senſible of the great Happineſs and Proſperity which we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, we will at all Times have a due Regard to the Value of the many Bleſſings reſulting therefrom, and will, upon every Occaſion, unite in the firmeſt Support of your Majeſty's Endeavours to continue theſe to us, by preſerving the excellent Syſtem of the preſent Conſtitution.

That your Majeſty may long live to reign over a free and happy Nation is the ſincere and fervent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty, &c.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of your ancient Borough of Linlithgow, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt conſtant and loyal Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

Deeply impreſſed with the Senſe of our Happineſs under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Adminiſtration, and of the peculiar Advantages we enjoy in our moſt excellent Conſtitution, Civil and Religious, as eſtabliſhed at the Time of the Glorious Revolution. Permit us, Royal Sire, to aſſure your Majeſty of our unalterable Reſolutions and zealous Exertions to ſupport your Majeſty in your paternal Endeavours towards the Maintenance of our Rights and Liberties; and we will do every Thing in our Power to ſuppreſs and prevent all Tumults and Diſorders, which may be attempted to be made by evil minded Perſons, and will in all Reſpects conform to your Majeſty's moſt gracious Proclamation of the 21ſt Day of May laſt.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of the Burgh of Lanark, and Deacons of Trades of ſaid Burgh, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, Council, and Deacons of Trades, of the Burgh of Lanark, moſt humbly embrace this Opportunity to return our moſt grateful Thanks to your Majeſty for your late moſt gracious Proclamation, and, with Hearts full of Gratitude, to acknowledge that Royal Goodneſs, ſo evidently manifeſt by your Royal Proclamation for ſuppreſſing thoſe ſeditious and inflammatory Publications, which may be productive of the moſt alarming and dangerous Conſequences.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we venerate the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, as eſtabliſhed by the Glorious Revolution, becauſe it connects the Honour of the Sovereign with the Liberty and Happineſs of the Subject; and therefore we moſt unfeignedly give your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances, that we ſhall ever zealouſly concur in Support of ſuch juſt and neceſſary Meaſures as may beſt enable your Majeſty to ſupport our happy Conſtitution, and repreſs that daring Spirit of Tumult and Sedition, which ſeem to threaten the Peace and Tranquillity of theſe Kingdoms.

At the ſame Time that we offer up our Tribute of Thanks to your Majeſty for your late gracious Proclamation, we alſo beg Leave to expreſs our ſincere and ardent Wiſhes that your Majeſty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free and happy People, and to ſhare the Bleſſings of domeſtic Felicity with your illuſtrious Conſort and Royal Iſſue, is the ſincere Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, Council, and Deacons of Trades of the Burgh of Lanark.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Annan.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful, loyal, loving Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of this Royal Burgh, humbly beg Leave to expreſs in your Preſence our ſincere Thanks for your Royal Proclamation againſt lawleſs Clubs and Aſſociations.

We rejoice that in the Rights of Britons we enjoy, under the benign Auſpices of your Majeſty's Government, the greateſt and ſafeſt Privileges of any Nation in the World, and, by the Divine Bleſſing on well eſtabliſhed Laws, virtuous Citizens of every Rank are protected in their Perſons, Religion and Property.

We wiſh every Reform, not deſtructive of the Morals of the People, nor incompatible with the Experience of Mankind; but we lament the turbulent licentious Spirit of ſome who claim Rights, which none of their Deſcription ever had or pretended to, and ſeek Redreſs, by unhinging the Laws of the beſt Conſtitution on Earth, and breaking down theſe ſacred Barriers againſt Vice and Wickedneſs, to deluge the Burghs with endleſs Intoxication and Riot, in annual Diſcuſſion of Politics, not calculated to make them either richer or happier or better, but quite the Reverſe.

We deteſt the Principles of theſe reſtleſs Incendiaries, when they miſs eſtabliſhing their ſiniſter Schemes, by a Sanction of the Legiſlature, try to influence in their Favor the lower Claſſes of uſeful and induſtrious Citizens, by inſpiring them with Diſcontent for pretended Wrongs, which they never felt, and Rights which never exiſted, and which no Reformer, or Meaſure of Reform, ever propoſed to redreſs or make them Partakers of.

We deteſt alſo the Practice of them, who under Pretence of Reform combine in lawleſs Aſſociations and drunken Clubs: Diſſatisfied with being Citizens of Great Britain, they call themſelves Citizens of the World, and fortify themſelves by Correſpondence with Clubs on the Continent, where Devaſtation and Rapine and Murders prevail every Day with Impunity, to trample on the moſt ſacred Liberties and Properties, and ſhed the Blood of their Countrymen, to eſtabliſh their own ambitious Projects, and ſtrive to weaken the Adminiſtration of Government by Lampoons, and Libels, and Mobs.

May the Almighty God, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree Juſtice, bleſs your Majeſty with long Life, Happineſs and Peace. May He inſpire all your People to live in Uprightneſs, Unity and Love, and to prize the Bleſſings they enjoy under ſo good a Prince. That He may diſappoint the diabolical Machinations of thoſe, who regarding neither Laws nor Religion, wiſh to confuſe all Things ſacred and profane to ſerve their own ſelfiſh Views. And that your Family, the Support of the Religion and Liberties of this great and powerful People, may ſway the Sceptre of theſe Realms to the lateſt Poſterity, is the ſincere Prayer of the Magiſtrates and Council of this Royal Burgh.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates, Town Council and Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Royal Borough of Culroſs, now aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne with Expreſſions of the moſt lively Gratitude for the ſignal Proof of your Majeſty's paternal Care, ever attentive to the Welfare of your People, lately manifeſted by your Royal Proclamation againſt ſeditious and inflammatory Writings, and for preſerving the Peace of the Nation.

Senſible as we are of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under our preſent happy Form of Government, we cannot but feel the ſincereſt Regret, as well as the deepeſt Abhorrence, at that Spirit of Licentiouſneſs which ſeems now to manifeſt itſelf in Combinations againſt the Tranquillity of your Majeſty's Government, and in Writings calculated to miſrepreſent and defame the Principles of our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, and thereby to overthrow the great Bulwarks of our Liberty eſtabliſhed by our Anceſtors at the Glorious Æra of the Revolution, and happily ſecured to us under the mild and auſpicious Sway of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe.

We beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that in our different Capacities, as private Citizens and public Magiſtrates, we will exert ourſelves, to the utmoſt of our Power, in co-operating with the gracious Intentions of your Majeſty's Proclamation.

Cordially attached to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, intereſted in the Happineſs of our Fellow Subjects, we moſt willingly embrace the preſent Opportunity of expreſſing our firmeſt Confidence in the Wiſdom and Integrity of your Majeſty's Councils, and our warmeſt Approbation of thoſe ſpirited and well timed Meaſures which have been adopted, in order to render abortive the Machinations of Men, whoſe Views ſeem hoſtile to the real and permanent Intereſts of this Country.
